

Classical Studies of Indianapolis

Excellence in Christian Education

Announcing 2018-19 Board of Directors

The Transition Committee for Classical Studies of Indianapolis is excited to announce the 1st Board of Directors, serving for the 2018-19 Academic Year. The board was elected as a slate* with unanimous approval from 30 families, representing 50% of eligible families in the CSIndy community. There were no objections raised with any of the candidates.

The 1st Board of Directors are, in alphabetical order, Brian Archer, Hannah Beerbower, Tara Brown, Laurie Carter, Rick Diaz, Joel Gibbons, Shaun Grannis, James Miles, Michael Preyss, Jason Sole, and Jenny Wingler. Board members may also be found on our website, <https://csindy.org/>

The CSIndy board is excited to move on with important tasks in the coming weeks, including:

- Electing officers
- Filing for non-profit status
- Signing our facility lease
- Finalizing and signing of bylaws

The first meeting of the CSIndy Board will be 1-4pm on Saturday, March 10 at Christ Church, 5550 St. Luke Dr, Plainfield, IN 46168. Due to space constraints of the venue, this first meeting is not open to the community at large. We do ask that everyone be in prayer for the Board of Directors as they meet.

If you have questions or comments, please reach out to the board at board@csindy.org.

**Daniel Meyer withdrew his nomination mid elections. He did so voluntarily with no objections or concerns from the community.*